

SCHLADERER

A FAMILY DISTILLERY SINCE 1844

KIRSCHWASSER BLACK FOREST CHERRY BRANDY

Our native sweet cherries come from prime locations in the Black Forest, and include the time-honored varieties Dollenseppler, Schwarze Schüttler and Benjaminler. The highly aromatic cherry bouquet, combined with almond-like nuances, is accentuated by light aromas of dark chocolate. The palate will savor the lingering rich cherry finish for a long time.

HISTORY

Since 1844, Schladerer has been distilling the finest fruits available to produce a wide range of world famous brandies and liqueurs. Schladerer has its origin in the little town of Staufen in Germany's historic Black Forest. In its sixth generation, Schladerer is still family-owned. It adheres to traditional values of responsibility and commitment, while meeting modern needs in order to lead the company into a successful future.
