

CNOC NA MÒINE

TORABHAIG LEGACY SERIES CHAPTER 3

PRODUCT INFORMATION

The highly anticipated Third Chapter in the Torabhaig Legacy Series

Inspired by the spectacularly rugged coastline on which our distillery sits on the Isle of Skye, we tame heavily peated grains to produce an elegantly rugged dram that balances strength with refinement to accentuate the floral, fragrant character of our whisky.

Cnoc Na Mòine is aged in Bourbon, American Oak Oloroso, and Pedro Ximenez Casks. The sherry casks in this new release lend a sweeter, richer flavor and a darker color

The name Cnoc Na Mòine translates as 'hill of peat' and is geographically located in Knoydart, which can be seen across the Sound of Sleat from the distillery.

Product	Single Malt Scotch Whisky
Bottling strength	46%
Cask fill strength	63.2 - 63.6%
Wood	Ex-Bourbon, American Oak Oloroso, and Pedro Ximenez casks
Peat in grain	78.44 ppm
Residual peat	19.7 ppm
No. of bottles	90,000
Non chill-filtered, not colored

TASTING NOTES FROM OUR WHISKY MAKER & MASTER BLENDER

NOSE: Slightly subdued peat smoke backed by hints of orange peel, tangy fruit, and a whiff of dying embers. A touch of vanilla sweetness, and some freshly sawn oaky spice

PALATE: Peat returns on the palate with more of a BBQ note, before the spirit brings in some pepper, a light balsamic acidity and more sweetness and gentle spice. Fragrant touches of cedar and leather, with the sherry casks adding some depth

FINISH: The sherry influences are a wonderful light touch, showing themselves in harmonious balance with Torabhaig's integrated peat and spice structure which shines through